Choruses are allowed to have riser chairs on the contest stage. Chairs are to be provided by the individual or the chorus. It is the chorus' responsibility to transport the chair as well as place and remove the chair surrounding your performance.

IMPORTANT NOTICES:

- Riser chairs must be labeled with the chorus name, contact name and a cell phone number
- Riser chairs may NOT be transported on the buses (contestant and/or audience)
- Riser chairs may be delivered backstage of the stage at the listed times below ONLY
- Riser chairs must be removed within 30 minutes of the close of the chorus competition
- Any riser chair left for more than 30 minutes will be considered property of the region and the auditorium and will be disposed of accordingly

Delivery times: Friday
 Sound Check (9:00 am to 11:00 am)
 30 minutes prior to Quartet Contest (currently 5:00 pm to 5:30 pm)*

Saturday
 30 minutes prior to Chorus Contest (currently 11:30 am to 12:00 pm)*

These times are based on the current competition start times and may change based upon the number of contestants.*

You may have a helper (someone not competing with your chorus) assisting with placing and removing your riser chair. The helper is allowed to ride the bus with your chorus. Please list the helpers below
