Darlene Rogers

Join the MAYHEM!

Master director of Texas Harmony Chorus, Region #10, Darlene is a certified member of the international faculty program; a regional faculty member; and part of the Region #10 and Region #25 Education Steering Committee. A Sweet Adeline since 1968, she is a partner in Sing, Baby, Sing!, a vocal production series created with Dale Syverson and Peggy Gram. She is an acclaimed music educator and vocal coach. She has been teaching and coaching proper vocal production skills to choruses and quartets in the barbershop idiom for more than three decades.

Darlene began her Sweet Adeline career in 1968 in Ponca City, OK. In 1970, she became a member of the OK City Chorus, where she later became assistant director. In addition, she was director of the Oklahoma Jubilee Chorus in Tulsa, as well as a member of the 1975 Region 10 Champion Lady Luvs Quartet.

Darlene currently resides in Flower Mound, TX where she teaches private voice lessons. This outstanding and dynamic musical leader is in great demand as a coach and teacher by many award winning choruses and quartets in both the Sweet Adeline and S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A. organizations, including the 1999 Sweet Adeline International Quartet Champions, Rumors.
